April 4 & 11, 2021 • Edition 32 • Weeks 55 & 56

Keeping us connected during the Coronavirus Pandemic

Fr. Scott's Sharing Spot

Dear Parish Family...

Do you feel too busy to relax into the joy of the moment? Many of us habitually put off fun and relaxation to a later time. "I can't relax now," we say, "I have so much to do."

Certainly, part of maturity is learning to prioritize our tasks and delay gratification, but many people with classic American "Type A" personalities are compulsively drawn to the next item on our To-Do list. And having fun, relaxing and enjoying life is never on the list.

Over time, this attitude of always needing to delay celebration so we can manage the mundane takes a toll on us. We're spending all of our time outside of ourselves, because our focus is on the future, the next thing, how to set ourselves up for tomorrow... and a human being cannot live anywhere but in this moment. If we're always thinking about tomorrow, then we are not actually living our life, since life is always about right now.

As John Lennon famously said, "Life is what happens while we're busy making other plans."

So, let us be clear: today is a day to claim for celebration! We must not put it off. As the Easter psalm (118) says: "This is the day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad in it!" The poet and author Maya Angelou paraphrased that beautifully:

"Today is a wonderful day! I've never seen this one before."

When Easter comes, rejoicing must be put at the top of our "To Do" list. And not just today, but this whole season of Easter, which stretches through April to the Feast of Pentecost on May 23. We must celebrate and rejoice. We owe God that.

After all Jesus did for us...

- after giving his life so that we could live
- after revealing that death is just an illusion
- after teaching us that every cross we face will be followed by a resurrection
- after promising that every Good Friday will lead us to an Easter Sunday, if we are willing to live through it without fleeing

...after all of that, we owe God the pleasure of seeing us happy. We ought to give our Creator the delight of seeing our joy and gratitude. We ought to show Jesus that, although we didn't quite understand him when he walked among us and taught us how to live (... As he said to the Apostles: "Have you been with me this long and still you do not know me?" [John 14:9]...), now we can see what he was trying to say to us and we allow it to bring us the kind of peace the world cannot give... and cannot take away.

Many of us Catholics are very good at Lent. We like giving things up and cataloging all of our sins and failures, because it reminds us of the uncompleted "To Do" list that rules our lives. But, friends... Lent is over. Whatever good intentions we had that were left undone, too bad. It's over. Christ rose from the dead without our help. It turns out it was never our hard work that could raise him, it was the power of the love of God.

"This is the day the Lord has made. Let us rejoice and be glad!" And that's an order!

Happy Easter!

Fr. Scott ☺

P.S. This is the first Easter that an old Ravenna tradition has been resurrected. Are you old enough to remember getting Frese's bread on your way home from Sunday Mass? Now we can all relive that tradition and support a local parishioner-owned family business: Frese's Bakery will be open on Easter morning from 8 until Noon. (Cookies, cannolis and Easter bread are best ordered in advance.)

Opportunities For You – To Serve/Pray/Grow

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY – SUN. APRIL 11 – 11:00 AM / 3:00 PM
 The Sunday after Easter was designated by Pope St. John Paul II as “Divine Mercy Sunday,” an opportunity to reflect on the supernatural visions of Christ of St. Faustina Kowalska, a Polish Sister of Mercy, who was asked by Christ to record the things he told her in her diary, which has become a spiritual classic.
 Many people have found this devotion very meaningful and life-giving.

Would you like to learn more, including the key prayer that many people pray every day?

Join us for an introduction, 11:00 AM at St. Patrick's, Ravena and 3:00 PM at St. Mary's, Coxsackie on Divine Mercy Sunday, April 11.

ST. MARY’S “R & R FUND” UPDATE

We came to you at the end of February letting you know that we were facing a Repair & Renovations Fund deficit because COVID had lowered our Mass attendance and affected the monthly collection. Well, friends, in the past five weeks, $19,707 has been collected. We are now over budget goal for this time of the fiscal year by $805! You continue to amaze us all with your steadfast commitment, no matter what, to our beloved parish. Thank you!

ENVELOPES, CHECKS & CASH GIFTS ARE ALWAYS WELCOME, BUT E-GIVING DOES WORK BEST
 Might you like to give e-giving a try, knowing how much it helps the parish budget for the future and be assured of support, regardless of the weather, COVID restrictions or other unforeseen challenges? If so, Click Here. Know that you can give it a try and later change your mind at any time.

Thank you all for your incredible generosity!
